

Our Learning Mentor team helps pupils overcome and build strategies for dealing with behavioural, social and emotional problems, which can affect their ability to learn.

The team work with a range of children. This can be in a one to one setting, supporting the child in the classroom or in a group setting, whichever is best for the individual.

Children are regularly monitored and are supported with targets linked to the identified concerns.